Saint Vincent de Paul, Feast Day, September 27, was the son of a peasant farmer. He was ordained to the priesthood at the early age of twenty, and dedicated his whole life to the service of the poor. He organized groups of lay people for charitable work, and founded the Congregation of the Mission, a society of priests for missionary work, as well the Daughters of Charity.

Saint Vincent de Paul established these groups in response to the needs that he saw. There was no human suffering that he did not seek to relieve. The name Saint Vincent de Paul is now well known today for the charitable work to the poor.
